

THE POSTMAN

By Xenon

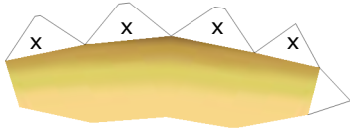

"I'm currently on the job. If I stop to talk, it will disrupt my schedule."

Clock Town's Postman takes his job very seriously, obsessively following his work timetable to the exact second. Even with the Moon about to annihilate Termina, he refuses to take refuge simply because the schedule does not tell him to. It is possible during the Anju-Kafei sidequest to let him deliver a high priority letter to Madame Aroma, who then orders him to flee the town. By freeing him of his duties, he gives Link the Postman's hat as a reward.
